

CHAS. WEIRICK TODAY ENJOINED

COUNTY TAKES STEPS TO RESTRAIN REGISTER.

FROM COPYING RECORDS

Pending Trial of Action in Circuit Court—Corps of 13 Ladies Temporarily Dismissed.

In compliance with an injunction order issued by Circuit Commissioner Edwin F. Carpenter and served upon Registrar of Deeds Charles H. Weirick this noon, the eleven ladies who have been employed in copying the abstract books were instructed not to return to work this afternoon or until further notification is given them.

SUMMONS AND COMPLAINT.

The summons and complaint filed by Attorney Reger calls upon Mr. Weirick to appear within twenty days after service and defend the action. The complaint which covers fifteen typewritten pages gives an exhaustive review of transactions incident to the county's engaging in the abstract business, beginning with the passage by the board in January, 1881, of a resolution authorizing C. L. Valentine, then registrar of deeds, to complete a title abstract for a consideration of $2,200; and detailing the delivery of the books into the hands of Registrar of Deeds O. D. Rowe in 1886 as sole custodian, on a fee-sharing basis, with instructions for sale from the books belonging to the county, and various other matters of record which are supposed to have a bearing on the case. In paragraph 13 it is alleged that no contract has been made between the county and Registrar of Deeds Weirick respecting the custody of the abstract books but that he has from time to time rendered statements of moneys received by him and paid one half to the county. But it is further alleged that he has not rendered to the plaintiff any itemized statement of moneys received by him for abstracts since Jan. 1, 1910, though he did on April 2, 1910, hand to the county treasurer a statement that he had received $258.50 for this work during the three months in question and was prepared to pay to the county one half of such moneys as soon as he was properly advised in the premises. This certification was coupled with a statement to the effect that Mr. Weirick understood that a commitment on the subject of the county's right to participate in the abstract business and that the said committee had as yet reached no conclusion. The proceedings of the special meeting of the supervisors on March 24 are reviewed and in conclusion the plaintiff demands judgment adjudging:

PASSENGER TRAIN KILLED STOUGHTON MAN EARLY TODAY

Percy J. Nicholls Meets Sudden Death While Walking Along C. & M. & St. P. Tracks at 6:45 This Morning.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Stoughton, Wis., April 8.—Percy J. Nicholls, aged 22, an office employee of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road in Stoughton, was run down and instantly killed by one of the company's trains this morning. The fatality occurred at 6:45 while Nicholls was walking along the rails on the way from his home to the station to take up his day's work. Passenger train No. 4, from North McGregor to Milwaukee, was more than two hours late, and Nicholls' mind was probably entirely off the subject of trains for he never seemed to be aware that any train was behind him. He was walking to one side of the track when struck. Dr. L. M. Truelsen examined the body and found the neck broken. Engineer George Campbell of Milwaukee, who was driving the engine, had the following to say at the station after the accident:

"We were into this morning and coming along some but had already started to slow up when we struck the boy. He was walking along the track, a little to one side, about 800 feet west of the platform when he was hit. I saw him quite distinctly but not in time to stop the train. I pulled the whistle as hard as I could but he paid no attention. When I got about 50 feet from him I threw on the air and had slowed up some when he was hit. We stopped immediately and picked him up. He showed no signs of life and probably was instantly killed."

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

London, April 8.—In the little parlor of the public house in Islington called "The Bluecoat Boy," which he has made his headquarters for a number of years, "Jem" Mace, the former champion pugilist of the world, received the congratulations of a little circle of friends and cronies today on the occasion of his eightieth birthday. It is now nearly half a century since Mace won the championship from Tom King. Subsequently he defended his title in fights with Joe Goos, Joe Wormald, Tom Allen, Joe, Corburn and Ned T. Holden. It is estimated that during his long career in the prize ring Mace earned considerably more than a million dollars, the most of which was dissipated in unfortunate speculations. Today the old-time fighter is practically penniless, almost his only source of income being a government "old-age" pension.

IOWA DEMOCRATS SCENT VICTORY

Leaders From Every Nook And Corner Of State At Des Moines Today And Discussed Outlook.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Des Moines, Ia., April 8.—Certain defeat for the Republican party in Iowa next November is the prediction of Democratic leaders gathered in Des Moines today from every nook and corner of the State. Tonight's annual dinner of the Jefferson Memorial Banquet Club furnished the ostensible object of the reunion of the party leaders, but the true reason for the unusually large gathering of the faithful is found in the general desire for a party conference to discuss the early plans for the coming campaign. Chairman Price and all of the members of the State committee were in attendance.

The Democrats profess to regard the outlook for their success next fall as unusually bright. Their hopes are based largely on the serious discussion in the Republican ranks. Iowa is now regarded as a "progressive" State. Her senators took the lead in the fight against the "trust-busting" bill, and were backed by insurgent congressmen from several districts. It has been practically settled that an effort will be made to elect insurgent Republicans in congressional districts represented by stalwarts. But whether a fight shall be made on governor and other state officers has not been definitely determined. It is believed by many progressives they should keep hands off state officers. Perhaps just as many insist that a campaign should be made to oust Governor Carroll, who, it is conceded, will be a candidate for re-election before the June primaries.

Leading democrats are of the opinion that if the factional warfare of the Republican extends to the State officers a democratic victory is certain to result. The Democratic ticket will be named at the State convention to be held at Ottumwa the last week of July. The Republican convention is to meet in Des Moines one week later.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Chicago, Ill., April 8.—Reports have been received here that the Pioneer Limited train on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road was held up near Oakdale, Wis., this morning. A disconcert from La Crosse says the bandits were prevented from entering the cars by Conductor Shumway who fought them until they jumped from the train. A Sparta, Wis., dispatch, however, says that the robbers got six thousand dollars from the passengers and the express car.

Obtained Nothing. La Crosse, Wis., April 8.—Not a cent of money and no valuables were obtained in the attempted robbery of the Pioneer Limited, according to the official statement made by Conductor Shumway here today. That the bandits failed to secure rich booty was due to the nerve of Shumway and the negro porter.

Men Escaped. Shumway says that after the men ordered him to hold up his hands he knocked one down but at the same instant the other robber pulled a revolver into his face. The negro porter came to his rescue and the robbers seeing him leaped from the train. Several shots were fired at them but they escaped in the darkness.

WILL BEGIN THE CAMPAIGN SOON

SENATOR LA FOLLETTE WILL ESTABLISH HEADQUARTERS IN MADISON MAY 1. DAVIDSON IS ELIMINATED

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

From Running For Governorship and as Opponent to La Follette For Senatorial Honors.

Madison, Wis., April 8.—Political headquarters for the promotion of the candidacy of Robert M. La Follette for re-election to the United States senate will be opened here on May 1. Preparations for this movement are under way and a corps of stenographers is sending out letter to La Follette workers in every section of the state asking aid in furthering the senator's plans for re-election.

In every district efforts are being made to bring out La Follette men of standing and political plausibility to run for the state senate and assembly, thus the better to ensure La Follette's retention in the upper house of congress. When congress adjourns the senator himself, fresh from stormy scenes of insurgent strife, will come back to Wisconsin and launch upon one of his old-time state-wide campaigns, visiting the farthest hamlets as well as the largest cities in his endeavor to make his position in national legislation clear.

As yet, La Follette's opponents have not thoroughly mapped out plans for their campaign against him. Samuel A. Cook, a Neenah millionaire and former congressman, has announced his candidacy against Senator La Follette, but the leaders of the "stalwart" wing have refrained from offering him their unqualified support, but more through their view of his political inexperience than of his fitness for the position. Mr. Cook is conceded by all classes to be worthy of the high position of United States senator, being a man of large business acumen and rugged character and, moreover, not unfamiliar with the methods of national legislation. During the last senatorial campaign, he also was a candidate for senator. Senator Isaac Stephenson was elected, with Francis E. McGovern of Milwaukee second, Mr. Cook third, and William H. Hutton of New London, fourth.

Cook's announcement is generally conceded to bar Gov. J. O. Davidson from the senatorial field, for his entry into it at this late day would, it is believed, greatly lessen his chances. Likewise he is thought to be forestalled as a possible candidate for re-election as governor through the candidacy of Gov. Senator E. T. Fairchild of Milwaukee, whose announcement was made last Monday. Republican State Chairman W. D. Connor is being credited with engineering the deal by which Messrs. Cook and Fairchild were brought in to the field before Gov. Davidson had made up his mind what office he had better seek. For it was commonly believed among the politicians here that the governor would go after either the senatorship or another term as governor. It is now thought he is slated for a federal appointment through the grace of Senator Stephenson, his companion on fishing trips and acknowledged warm friend.

With the passing of election day and its local distractions, interest in state politics picks up. The result of the "twists" with victories in a majority of the communities that voted on the license issue. Since that day there has appeared an undisputed revelation of feeling in favor of the county option stand taken by Capt. William Mitchell Lewis, one of the republican candidates for the gubernatorial nomination. Capt. Lewis has made county option his chief issue. The farmers of the state are in a large measure favorable to this measure, which promises again to be the chief issue before the next legislature. But, are already being made that it will go through this time with more or less ease. Francis E. McGovern of Milwaukee, has been making little stir as yet in his gubernatorial plans. Other announced candidates are State Senator H. W. Barker of Sparta, who is running on a temperance platform; and State Senator E. T. Fairchild, anti-consumption candidate.

The big social democratic victory in Milwaukee Thursday is taken here as an indication of a revolt against machine politics and in favor of more individual control. The Tosa machine in Milwaukee was pretty thoroughly blackened by platform and press during the recent campaign, and the Toplean promises of the socialists at last have heavy fruit, not only to majority being captured but also the control of the common council and county board, as well as city attorney and several judgeships. In some circles at Washington, it is reported, the victory is regarded as the result of a coalition between the social democrats and the La Follette republicans, and La Follette is expected to profit by it in his fight for re-election.

Durr W. Jones, a prominent Madison lawyer and former congressman, is being favorably mentioned as the democratic candidate for governor. Congressman Charles H. Volney of Sheboygan is mentioned as a possible successor to State Democratic Chairman H. H. Munson of Wausau, whose resignation is expected at a meeting to be held later this month.

No news has yet been received by Mrs. Wallace Wallace whose six year old daughter, Cecile, was abducted yesterday afternoon. The theory that the child's father, Maurice Wallace of Toledo, took the child has been abandoned after closer investigation of the circumstances and it is now thought that the little girl's grandmother came on from Toledo and took the child back with her. Mrs. Wallace said last night that she would swear out a warrant for her sister-in-law's arrest whom it is said aided the grandmother but evidently changed her mind for up to a late hour today, no warrant had been issued.

The complaint is that the company is exceeding its rights in keeping the dam as high as it does. Norman Adams & Reeder will represent the plaintiffs. The cases have to come individually before the court and John Yost is the first to formally begin action.

STRIKE SITUATION BECOMING COMPLEX

Other Local Unions Seem to Be Manifesting a Desire to Present Demands.

Strike conditions in Janesville, particularly, and also throughout the country, seem to be growing more complex as spring advances. Not only have the union harness workers and masons in Janesville struck but rumors are being heard that the plumbers are making demands which must be either granted or refused shortly. The plumbers' demands, however, are for the adjustment of what is said to be trifling difficulties and will probably be settled without trouble.

As regards the other two strikes, settlement still seems to be far off. The masons claim that they have been receiving wages far below the standard paid in other cities of the state. Madison in particular, paying sixty cents an hour, and until the contractors agree to pay $4.50 for an eight hour day instead of the same amount for a nine-hour day, they will refuse to work. These demands affect the contractors only for the masons are ready to take work themselves for fifty-six and a half cents an hour.

Striking harness makers, who are still out, have received a letter from E. J. Baker of Kansas City, president of the union, that the E. M. Jones company of Oshkosh City, one of the largest manufacturers of saddlery in the world, but not a member of the association, have granted the demands of the brotherhood and signed a contract.

The manufacturers announce that in Milwaukee and Rockford some of the strikers have already returned to work and more are to follow.

UNUSUAL SITUATION FOR THE PLANTERS

A Number of Tobacco Growers Have Last Year's Crop in Shed Waiting for Chance to Strip It.
"An unusually early spring has caught quite a number of tobacco growers in a peculiar situation this year," says the Edgerton Reporter, "that of having a portion of their crops hanging in the sheds. The month of March, which generally brings easing weather in the melting of a winter's snow, passed without any rain whatever and no time did the hanging tobacco come into sufficient ease for stripping. In fact there has been no good evening weather since December when most of the crop was removed from the sheds. It is estimated that fully fifty per cent of the crop of the state is yet hanging, and growers are wondering when they will be able to get it into proper case for stripping. As a good portion of this tobacco was sold under contract and many of the packers are about through with the season's handling, the question arises whether they will be able to deliver their tobacco under the contract or not. It is coming the time of year too when other farm work is rushing which growers dislike to halt to prepare their tobacco for market. It has been some years since a similar condition has arisen in this state or that a spring has opened without an abundance of weather that would bring tobacco down from the curing barns. If the growers have any consideration for the tobacco still hanging, they should see that it is taken down and stripped the first opportunity that comes."

Crop Sales Steady.
"About the same conditions prevail in the local leaf market as for some weeks past. A steady absorption of the 99 crop is going on and is likely to continue until the country districts are well cleaned up, for growers are anxious to dispose of their holdings even at a low level of prices. The bulk of the sales remains around the

The carnival is one of the athletic events of the year, the best athletes and gymnasts in the school competing. The basketball game between the upper classmen and the "Profs" is a thing of much interest on account of the keen rivalry between them. The Seniors have always come out first best in previous matches and are planning on doing the same this year. The Faculty, however, say that the Seniors are going to get a drubbing. A game between the Freshmen and Sophomore fives has also been arranged for. Besides the basketball games there will be relay races and other popular stunts.

MOOSE TO SELECT LODGE ROOMS SOON

Committee on Permanent Home Will Report at Next Regular Meeting, April 14.

Although it was hoped that the committee of nine appointed to select a permanent home for the Janesville Lodge of Moose would report at the regular meeting of the lodge last night, the report was not rendered and it has been decided to delay it until the next meeting which will be held Thursday night, April 14. From what can be learned, the choice of a home has been narrowed to two locations, the three floors in the Myers block adjacent to the Elk club rooms, and Assembly hall. It would also seem that a majority of the committee favor the former location, both because the building has been remodeled into admirable club rooms and also because the theatre would be at the disposal of the club two nights in the year for subscription nights. On the other hand, a performance, on the committee favor Assembly hall, supposedly because it is located on the west side of the river. The members of the committee have the names in charge are J. L. Hansen, director, ex-officio, George W. Hansen, chairman, Dr. Edden, Ernest Meyer, Walter Taylor, R. Lay, Henry Kline, Charles Miller and B. L. Gage. At the meeting last night four new members were taken into the order and routine business transacted.

COLORED GENT IS VERY BADLY WANTED

Theft of Suit Case From Freight Car Lends Color to Theory That One Man Got All the Loot.

At the instance of the local police department, officers in all of the neighboring cities are on the lookout for the colored stranger, whose exit from Janesville Wednesday night was coincident with the disappearance of 18 suits of Lewis underwear from a C. & N. W. box car and cash and miscellaneous valuables from Bert Van Houten's saloon and other business establishments. It was learned last evening that another freight car, this one billed to Janesville and containing merchandise for Dan Luby, was broken into the same night and one leather suit case taken from a crate. This circumstance lends color to the theory that the work was all done by one man rather than a band of them, and the "gentleman of color" with the light suit and hat and bow button shoes, gets the credit unless he sees fit to step forward and prove an alibi.

Brought Home Auto: W. F. Palmer, accompanied by Dr. F. B. Barnsworth, P. S. Barnes, Roy Peterson and Kenneth Parker, returned last evening from Chicago with a six cylinder Mutheson which he has purchased.

Heat the Knife Blade.
To spread the hardest butter easily on the thinnest bread, have a cup of boiling water handy. Into which dip the point of the knife each time before cutting a piece from the butter. This renders it just right for spreading evenly. New bread or cakes can be cut without jagged edges if the blade of the knife used be heated for a second in a clear fire.

PRAYERS NEVER PASSED OVER

First Thought in the Mind of Mohammedan is His Duty of Devotion to Allah.

"And while we three white men of a Christian race stuffed ourselves without preliminary or postprandial grace, and our shorn porters graciously gorged themselves like beasts, scarce 30 feet from our table stood the noble form of old Regal and the spare ascetic-faced Awala, intently intoning their evening prayer to Allah, oblivious to all about us as if alone in a monastic cell. It was a majestic rebuke to us, a weird mystery to the shaven, whose voices were always lowered when the Somalis began to pray, and who sat contemplating them in wild-eyed wonder to the end of each prayer, awed, almost silent—as were we ourselves silent out of the sheer respect for a religion which can give men such perfect self-control that no danger daunts them and no hardship or suffering wrings from them a plaint.

"Five times a day do they so pray—at dawn, at high noon, at four, at sunset and before retiring—nor can anything interfere to delay these prayers, not even hungry masters. And before addressing Allah, mouth, face and hands are carefully washed, the best turban wound about the head, the freshest garments donned, the feet bared, then with a glance at the sun, if by day, or at the stars, if by night, to get their compass bearings, they spread their rugs, face towards Mecca, and begin a low, droning chant that at a little distance might easily be mistaken for a well-intoned lullaby."—From In Closed Territory, by Edgar Beecher Bronson.

Men and Young Men's Clothes

We're Anxious to Talk of the New Clothes--and YOU no doubt are quite as anxious to learn authoratively of the fashions in male attire adopted for Spring 1910.

For weeks past we have been receiving the new things, arranging the displays, and otherwise working out in detail the showing of good clothing and accessories which are all revealed here for Spring selling; it is scarcely necessary to state that the leading American makers, headed by the Hirsch Wickwire, are included; the stand Rehbergs has taken in this regard is well known to Janesville clothing buyers, and its insistent policy of giving its patrons a variety of the best makes to choose from, instead of one or two, has undoubtedly added much to its popularity with the masses; every new style that will interest you, in both suits and overcoats for men, here at a price range of $15.00 to $30.00.

Youths' Clothes

Always a favorite with the youth of Janesville, Rehberg desires to announce that they have devoted extraordinary care and attention this season to the selection of their stock of youth's clothing; all the newest, nobbiest, most ultra fashionable things will be shown, and exclusiveness will be a feature; in suits the two-button University model with pegtop trousers will be exceedingly popular; the selection, however, in spring overcoats as well as suits will be better than ever, at prices ranging all the way from $10.00 to $20.00.

The Style Leader For Young Men

In the styles for younger men, Longley Hats have to a very pronounced degree, that certain snappiness and "go" so characteristic of the American young man who is up-to-date, critical, and progressive in his ideas of dress.

And in the styles for more mature men as well, you will find a distinctive, conservative dressiness, suitable and correct, $3, other makes at $2.00 to $4.00.

MEN'S CLASSY OXFORDS

Everything that is good for the coming season for men of refinement and good taste, who insist upon the style features as well as the wearing qualities, will be found in our Spring displays.

The features of this season are the rope stitched, high heel, Arcadian lasts, with the short vamp and wing tips. Our showings are comprehensive, including the patent colt, the new Gray Russia calf, the newer tans, etc., shown in the Bostonian and Kneeland makes, noted for their superior workmanship and fine leathers at $3.50 and $4.00.

Dr. Reed Cushion Shoes at $5.00.

WOMEN'S STYLISH FOOTWEAR

The cleverest models in both pumps and oxfords shown in Southern Wisconsin. The full Cuban heels and military heels, in handsome plain patent, either blucher or lace styles, as well as button oxfords with fancy cloth top. In the dull kid leathers, another new feature in fine shoe-making, we show a variety unequalled, the short vamps, the plain or fancy perforated tips, in fact every clever novelty will be found. Patents and tans in the darker shades are also good and our extraordinary preparedness will be welcomed by all women who call here.

We carry the famous Queen Quality and Selby faultless oxfords for women, at $3.00 and $3.50.

Almost invariably they are so pleased that they say, "Go ahead and finish them up."

MICHIGAN DELEGATION DECIDE TO AID TAFT

Congressmen Will Use Their Utmost Endeavor to Facilitate Passage of President's Message.

Washington, April 8.—The Michigan delegation at a caucus unanimously agreed to use their best efforts to assist President Taft in putting through the house the legislation he most desires.

It is expected other state delegations will meet and take action similar to that taken by the Michigan delegation. These state conferences are designed to take the place, in part, of a general Republican caucus which President Taft suggested as a means to get his bills through the house without having them materially amended. A legislative caucus is not practical at this time, because many Republicans would not attend.

The house committee on public lands reported favorably the administration withdrawal bill, a portion of the conservation legislation recommended by the president. The bill gives the president absolute authority to withdraw or restore public lands by executive order when such lands are desired for water power sites, forest reserves, mineral or oil deposits.

The railroad bill has privileged position before the house, under unanimous consent. Chairman Mann of the house committee on commerce, which reported the bill, had a conference with President Taft in which the position of the railroad bill was considered. There is to be free and full discussion of the bill, Mr. Mann not desiring to restrict it.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT, JR. TO BE MARRIED JUNE 20

Day Is Finally Set for Brilliant Wedding to Miss Eleanor D. Alexander.

New York, April 8.—At last the day has been set for the marriage of Miss Eleanor D. Alexander and Theodore Roosevelt, Jr.

The wedding, which of course, will be the most brilliant of many seasons, will take place on June 20 in the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church, this city, and will be followed by a large reception which will be given by Miss Alexander's mother, Mrs. Henry Addison Alexander, at the home of the bride's uncle, Charles H. Alexander, 4 West Fifty-ninth street.

The exact hour has not been decided upon, but it will be in the afternoon. Colonel and Mrs. Roosevelt will, according to their present plan, sail for home on June 10, so allowing for any possible delay, they cannot fail to arrive in time for the wedding.

POPE PIUS X. IN DEEP REGRET.

Is Sorry He Was Prevented From Meeting Col. Roosevelt.

Rome, April 8.—Several prominent ecclesiastics who were received by the pope managed to introduce the subject of the Roosevelt incident. To these the pontiff expressed the deepest regret that he had been prevented from meeting the former president, but he gave utterance to no opinion regarding the negotiations or the deadlock that followed. The incident continues to be a live topic of discussion and is emphasized by what the liberal press calls the new mistake of Cardinal Merry del Val, who also prevented the Cardinal of Cologne being received by the pope because the society visited the Quirinal and sang before the Italian sovereigns, although every year hundreds of persons are received by King Victor Emmanuel and afterward admitted to the presence of his holiness.

Peking Has a Bomb Scare.

Peking, April 8.—The government proposes to form an uninhabited zone surrounding the regent's residence, this determination being the result of the finding of bombs recently in the palace. It is believed that the placing of explosives there was of European origin. Many revolutionists have been arrested. The Chinese officials are panicky, but silent.

Washington, D. C., April 8.—Orders issued by the navy department, by consent of the state department, that 950 marines be returned to the United States from service near Nicaragua, indicate that Secretary Knox regards peace as having been established in that republic.

Gets $25,000 Damages for Fall.

El Paso, Tex., April 8.—On the plea that the hand rail on a Santa Fe freight car broke and gave him a serious fall, George C. Gould was awarded $25,000 by a jury.

Inclined Style of Writing Best.

It has been reported by the French commission formed for the purpose of making comparative studies of the vertical and inclined styles of handwriting, with regard to the health of school children, that the inclined style is far simpler and less fatiguing than the vertical style, and less likely to cause spinal curvature and other evil results.

DR. ROLLER LOSES TO MAHMOUT.

Physician Injures Right Arm in First Bout But Continues.

Kansas City, Mo., April 8.—Hundreds of dollars were lost last night when Yousef Mahmout, the Turk, won from Dr. R. P. Roller, in a straight fight before a crowd of 8,000 people at the Missouri Athletic club. Dr. Roller was the favorite and the betting on him was heavy with good liberal odds.

After the first fall Doctor Roller announced that he had injured his right shoulder, but he finished the match, using only his left arm.

IMPERIAL GLASS CO. INDICTED.

Grand Jury Declares It to Be an Illegal Combination.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 8.—The federal grand jury handed down indictments against the Imperial Glass Co. on three counts. It is charged by the grand jury that the company is an illegal combination which tends to the restriction of trade. The case has been on for about a week and has been under the direct supervision of H. P. Grosvenor, first assistant to Attorney General Wickert.

AUTO SPEED KINGS ASSEMBLE.

Racing Carnival of Motor Cars Opens at Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 8.—The largest auto racing carnival ever held on the Pacific coast began today in celebration of the opening of the new motor track here. The seven days' program includes 37 events, and among the contestants are the leading motor drivers of the country. On the saucer-shaped circular track the racers hope to attain a speed of one mile in 30 seconds, which would be a new record for a circular course.

It has been announced that Hursey Oldfield and Ralph de Palma will settle their long-standing rivalry at this meet. All arrangements had been made for this race at the meet in Daytona, Fla., when an accident to de Palma's car put an end to the preparations. The match between these two men will undoubtedly be the greatest automobile race ever seen in this country. The principals are the most daring racers in the country and the cars they expect to drive in the contest are marvels of workmanship. Three other notable entries are those of Lewis Strang, George Robertson and Frank Leacault.

FOUR HURT IN GAS EXPLOSION.

Scores of Men and Women Thrown in Panic by Blast.

Chicago, April 8.—Four men were injured, scores of men and women thrown into panic, and damage of $10,000 done when an acetylene gas tank in the basement of the Singer building, West Van Buren and South Clinton streets, exploded.

Too much pressure on the tank caused the explosion. The four injured men were employees of the National Welding and Manufacturing company and were at work near the receptacle when it burst.

The explosion shook other buildings in the block and men and women, fearing that the structures were going to fall, fled into the streets.

Chinese Prince Is Coming.

Yokohama, April 8.—Prince Tsai Talo of China sailed from this port today for San Francisco to study the military and naval administration of the United States. The prince is accompanied by a staff of 10 army, navy and civil officials. In August his older brother, Tsai Huan, will go to America on a similar mission.

Torpedo Boat Breaks Record.

Washington, April 8.—Breaking the world's record for speed made by a naval vessel, the torpedo boat destroyer Reid, Lieutenant Doddridge in command, attained a speed of 38 miles an hour and held it through a four-hour speed test in the Gulf of Mexico.

NO USE TO ESKIMOS.

Feeder—Civilization may spread, but the electric light will never take the place of the good old tallow candle in Alaska.

Reader—Why?

Feeder—Electric lights aren't nourishing.

Muscular Energy in Sugar.

Men performing hard manual labor have a natural taste for sweets, as they supply a great amount of muscular energy, says "What to Eat." They are equally beneficial to persons exposed to severe cold. In the lumber camps and mines of Canada and the colder sections of the United States workmen consume large quantities of sugar in the form of molasses. Tea and coffee are often sweetened with molasses and in some places it is added to almost every article of food. The same is more or less true in the logging districts of the south, where molasses and rice, mixed together, have become almost a staple diet.

(Copyright, 1910, by Rev. T. S. Lincoln, D.D.) The Mission of the Twelve, Matt. ix:36-x:16, 40-42.

Golden Text—Fruit ye have received, freely give, Matt. x:8.

(1.) Verses 35-36—What is "the gospel of the kingdom?"

(2.) Jesus spent his whole time in caring for the bodies and souls of the people, to what extent are all men under obligation to do the same thing?

(3.) What proportion of the people in this community are like "sheep having no shepherd?"

(4.) Verses 37-38—In the harvest today, as plentiful as more plentiful, than in the day of Jesus and what is the evidence?

(5.) Where are the chief harvest fields of Christian opportunity today?

(6.) What proportion of the crop is being lost, for the want of harvesters to gather it?

(7.) How can we best increase the number of the harvesters? (This question may have to be answered in writing by members of the club.)

(8.) Verse 1—What is the difference between the power given to the original twelve apostles and that given to ministers, or other godly men today?

(9.) The original twelve apostles had power, (1) To preach the gospel of the kingdom, (2) To remit sins, (3) To cast out devils, (4) To cure all manner of disease, and (5) To raise the dead. (Verses 8.) How much of this power is still in the church, and what power ought the church to have more than she possesses?

(10.) Verses 2-4—What significance is there, if any, in the fact that Jesus selected apostles to the number of twelve?

(11.) What was the occupation, or business individually, of the twelve apostles at the time of their calling?

(12.) Did Jesus know the future of each of the apostles at the time he called them?

(13.) Verses 5-8—From this story would you judge that Jesus loved the Gentiles less than he did the Jews, and if not, why did he forbid the apostles going to them?

(14.) Verses 9-10—Is there any reason to believe that Jesus did not mean the instructions about taking no money, when going on a missionary tour, to be permanent? (See Luke xli:35-36.)

(15.) Why should not missionaries today adopt the instructions of Jesus as given here, not to provide in advance for their maintenance?

(16.) Verses 11-14—To what extent are the instructions for the apostles to blot themselves upon those that were worthy, and not to hire their board, applicable to ministers and missionaries today?

(17.) What sin, or crime, are those guilty of, who refuse to hear God's messengers?

(18.) Verse 15—What punishment does God render to the individual, the city, or the country which rejects the message of God, and how does he inflict it?

(19.) Verses 40-41—Why may we be sure if we teach the gospel of the kingdom, that some will certainly receive our message?

(20.) If we receive a follower of Jesus we receive Jesus himself, and that is counted to us as receiving God, so Jesus states here; now what follows from this, or what does it imply?

(21.) What is the reward of a prophet, and that of a righteous man, both of which we may expect to receive if we entertain the servants of God and receive their message?

(22.) Verse 42—What is the reward of a smile, a kind word, or a generous act to a child, prompted by a loving heart in which Jesus dwells?

RULE THAT SEEMS GOOD ONE

Gambler Always Ascertains Whether Luck Is With Him or Not Before He "Sits In."

"There is no use in trying to beat against bad luck," said the successful gambler as he set down his glass of whisky and milk. "If you see luck is going against you, drop out. If the fickle goddess of fortune is with you, woo her for all you are worth. That's the whole secret of the game."

"I've been gambling all my life, and I rarely lose. Why? Because I never take a chance against bad luck. Luck is bound to be either with you or against you. You win or you lose. The chances of breaking even are mighty slim. And who wants to break even, anyhow?"

"Luck always runs in streaks. I can generally dope out whether I am going to be lucky or not, and when I know it isn't my time to win I simply don't play. How do I know? Well, I have a little system of my own, and I don't mind letting you in on it. Before I sit into a game I try out my luck in the seclusion of my own apartment. I take a deck of cards and start to play solitaire, Canfield against an imaginary banker. In five or six deals I can get an idea whether luck is with me at that particular time or not. If the cards are running consistently against me I stop and spend the evening at the theater, or chinning around the hotel lobbies. No game for me that night. On the other hand, if I see the cards are running my way I get into a game, and seldom quit a loser. It may sound foolish, but take my word for it, it's a pretty good dope to go by."

HOW HEARING IS AFFECTED

Two Theories as to the Effect of Artillery Practice on Auditory Apparatus.

A writer in a recent number of La Nature, M. Chastang, gives some interesting facts with regard to artillery practice in the French navy, and shows an inclination to favor the supposition, which we do not remember to have seen mentioned before, that in many instances injury to the auditory apparatus from the discharge of cannon is really due rather to aspiration than to concussion, says a writer in the New York Medical Journal.

It seems that on the schoolship as many as from 700 to 1,000 charges are fired at a session, presumably in rather quick succession. Thus an immense amount of gas generated by the combustion of the powder is produced, and this (in some way that does not appear clear to us) leads to such rarefaction of the air of the deck that it is suction instead of impact that injures the ear. The author finds support for this supposition in the fact that plugs of cotton inserted into the auditory canal are often found to have been wholly or in part withdrawn by the firing.

The adults, however, that persons standing very close to the gun are injured by concussion, as has commonly been supposed.

its intent. As the blanket bullet, a yard wide and all wool (to be pulled over the voters' eyes), was unrolled before him, the astute citizen remarked, "This blanket is a regular charity one, for it covers a multitude of sins."

Should I Wear Spectacles

Many people, both young and old, would do well to ask themselves the above question, and if any doubt be felt the wise course would be to consult Scholler, who would, by means of standard tests, examine as to the state of the eyes, and advise as to the best means of procuring normal vision. Continued application to close work under unfavorable conditions, indurated health, and neglect to care for our eyes are responsible to a great extent for the increase of defective sighted people in all large towns.

Which Parish?

By HELOISE BROGTON

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

The farm of Jules Rubidoux was located on the intersection of two lines marking boundary intersections. Indeed, there was a point where he could stand on a corner of four parishes. Jules was a shy dog and if pressed by the bailiff to pay for things he had bought from the stores in the village near by would keep them in a state of uncertainty as to which parish had jurisdiction in his case. He knew them all and knew which parish to stand on to avoid arrest when he saw one of them coming for the purpose.

His daughter, Anita, was a very pretty girl of eighteen whose short peasant skirt displayed a well turned ankle and whose black eye was full of mischief. Her father employed a farm hand during the harvesting, and Anita got all the fun she desired by coquetting with this person till the harvest was over and he went elsewhere, when she would tell him that she was very sorry, but she could not possibly love him well enough to marry him. This was very amusing to Anita and very hard on the farm hand.

One day just as the harvest was commencing a fine looking young fellow, Antoine Perrine, came along and was hired, as usual, by the farmer. Anita surveyed him from a window while he was talking near the barn with her father and thought that she would have a better time flirting with him than any one who had ever tackled. So the next day, when Antoine was mowing, she went out to him with a biscuit and a glass of wine for his refreshment. She saw at once by the way he looked at her that she had impressed him, and after sympathizing with him for being obliged to work in the hot sun she went back to the house very much pleased with herself and him.

Antoine was no fool. He had heard of the coquetry of the farmer's pretty daughter and, furthermore, that when she married she would have a very snug dot. Indeed, he was the son of a well to do former living some twenty leagues away and had hired himself out with the especial design of winning her in order to take revenge upon her for the damage she had done his fellow men. Nevertheless when he saw her he thought he would like to win her for keeps.

The affair went through the usual course. At the close of the harvest season Antoine declared his love, and Anita replied in the usual way. Antoine accepted her refusal and departed. He had no sooner gone than the girl discovered that this was a very different affair from any of the others and that she had been caught in her own trap. But unfortunately she did not discover this till Antoine had gone. That night she wept bitter tears, because even if she were not too proud to call him back she had no means of doing so, for she did not know whether he had gone.

The next morning while dressing she looked out of her window and was horrified to see the body of a man hanging from a tree that stood alone near the intersecting lines of the four parishes. Dressing herself, she ran out to the tree, but before she got there a man who was passing stopped and looked up at the body. When Anita came up she fainted. The suicide was Antoine.

When she came to herself the stranger was administering to her necessities.

"Cut him down!" she cried in agony. "No, mademoiselle. To do that might lead to serious complications. I have sent a boy to report the fact to the local guard. There he comes now."

The local guard came hurrying up to the tree, which was rapidly being surrounded by a crowd of people. He felt of the body and, finding it warm, said:

"He may be alive."

"Cut him down quick!" again cried Anita.

"If I mistake not," said the guard, "at this point four parishes join. I do not think the suicide is in my parish. I will inform the special guard of the parish in which he hangs."

He went away for the purpose, and Anita implored those standing about to take down the suicide in order that if he were not dead he might be resuscitated. But no one would take the responsibility from the shoulders of the authorities. Since she was a girl and had no means of doing the work she was obliged to wait for the special guard of the proper parish. After awhile he came hurrying along with the man who had summoned him. The two got out a map and began a spirited discussion as to which parish had a legal right to attend to the matter. At last they arrived at the conclusion that the tree was in one parish and the man was hanging over the other. This led to a further discussion as to which of the two parishes had jurisdiction.

The disputants finally decided that they were entirely wrong as to their position and that both tree and body were in a parish the guard of which had not been summoned.

At this point the corpse gave a kick. The crowd started back. Then the corpse put his hand in his pocket, pulled out a knife and, reaching up, cut the rope just above his head and dropped to the ground. The rope had been passed beneath his coat under his arms.

Anita on seeing that she had been tricked flew away to the house, but he followed her, and they were soon clasped in a lover's embrace.

POLICE END MARATHON DANCE. FIVE COUPLES WHO WERE STILL DANCING WHEN POLICE ENDED CONTEST.

San Francisco, Cal.—At the end of 15 hours and 8 minutes of continuous dancing the police stopped the "Gaiety" Marathon dance at Dreamland pavilion while five couples were on the floor. The record of 14 hours and 42 minutes established at Puckett's two weeks ago was broken. The dancers gamely continued after the police had stopped the music.

But that did not satisfy the throng at the "ringside." When the police stopped in and ended the contest against nature hundreds of the spectators thundered against their authority, hooting, jeering, rioting. The crowd wanted the dancers to continue until they dropped in their tracks. It was thumbs down for the Marathon dancers. At a prize fight speed-tutors will call upon the police to end a struggle, but not a Marathon dance. In a roped square, with sides 50 feet long, five couples were struggling against sleep and exhaustion. They had not left the enclosure since midnight. On a platform an orchestra droned away waltz and balling tunes, two-steps, three-steps, the light of a constellation of incandescent globes, beaming down on the glazed eyes of the contestants. Around the ring sat and stood a thousand and more men and women, cheering while they watched the giddy gyrations of the dancers.

At the end the interest of the crowd was centered on West and Miss Welsh. West is a man of 38, while the other dancers were all young, and his years and gray head aroused interest and sympathy for him. That couple stuck to the stride as to a religious rite and never varied an iota from the proscribed movements of the feet in the waltz and two-step. There was a young man in the crowd who wanted Miss Welsh to win. The girl, who is 16 years of age, is engaged to be married to the young fellow who had the lunch concession in the rink. She had promised to marry as soon as she secured her trousseau, and the Marathon dance prize was to be invested in dainty garments. The young man was an assiduous trader of the couple. The girl received a bunch of carnations while in the dance.

So It Wouldn't.
Little Ruth found that the horse had stepped on and broken the leg of one of her little chickens. Looking up at the horse, she said reproachfully: "Oh, dear, how could you be so careless! Why, this little chicken wouldn't step on you and hurt you like that for anything."—The Defensor.

Descriptive.
"What kind of looking girl is this to whom you have become engaged?" asked the old cigar manufacturer of his son, who has come home from college with the glad news. "Oh, she's a load of fun!" enthusiastically replied the youth. "Colorado clear hair and a patella shape, dad!"—Judge.

Armor.
"Do you wear glasses because your eyes are defective or because you think they add to your appearance?" asked the outspoken woman. "For neither reason," replied the patient man. "I wear them to protect my eyes from hat pins."—

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

DO YOU enjoy the blues?

No? Then why have them? Most people regard the blues as something like a cold in the head—an ailment that must occur once in a while, and that when it occurs, must be patiently endured rather than sensibly cured.

I think that's absurd.

Unless you really like to be in that state of mind in which you are sure that everything is wrong and will never come right again, that nobody loves you and that life is no longer worth living, I think there are plenty of things you can do to help you when you feel the spasms coming on.

Such are:
Well, in the first place, try going for a good long walk. "Blues" are notoriously bad walkers, I find, and in the majority of cases a good, brisk walk can leave them quite winded and exhausted somewhere on the road.

If that doesn't work, try the effect of an eleven or twelve hour sleep, a cold bath and a good breakfast. A great many very stalwart blues have been known to go down under that course of treatment.

If neither of these things has the proper effect, suppose you take a little interest in your stomach and bowels. "Nothing makes a man feel so absolutely hopeless and all around blue as indigestion," a doctor told me once. Maybe what you think is a state of mind is really nothing but a state of stomach.

Another cure for the blues is to make yourself smile at everyone you meet. It comes pretty hard at first. You are sure the smile must look sick enough to be on its deathbed, but if you keep on smiling, the smiles will get more healthy and the sickness will begin to transfer itself to the blues.

Another method is to go out of your way to speak kindly to or to do something kind for someone.

Sympathize with the pale little shop girl. Tell her you are sorry her work is so hard.

Give your paper boy a dime instead of a penny for the morning paper. Let the old "feather woman" tell you some of her miseries.

Offer your maid an unexpected afternoon off. Now, I know you think I'm just preaching, but I'm not. It's really and truly so. Exerting yourself to do a kind deed or say a kind word will often break the strength of a spasm of blues.

And please don't regard this as just a pleasant moral dissertation, but the next time you get into the power of the blue devils really try some of its suggestions.

But first, before you let yourself get into their power, please also consider this suggestion:

"If you must sit and sigh
And have the blues,
Why don't you try to realize
That there are sighs and sighs,
And blues and blues,
From which to choose?
They're heavenly blues and blues of tranquil seas,
Both pleasant—if you have them, pray have these;
And when you sigh, be like the turtle dove,
Who knows not grief and merely sighs for love."
—Bakewell Gray.

Still Fighting for the Rights of the Laboring Men as She Sees Them
Latest picture of "Mother" Jones, the best known woman among laboring men of the world.

Cincinnati, Ohio.—The appearance on the floor of the miners' convention, just closed of "Mother" Jones, now 76 years old, brought the men of the convention to their feet with a cheer. This aged woman is to be found wherever there is a labor convention.

or labor strike. She has nursed hundreds of unfortunate at mine disasters and led the "boys," as she calls them, on in face of gunfire. In spite of her years, she still possesses a keen intellect and an active body, and is a factor in the labor situation today.

FAITH,
By Mary Russell.

A blind faith in a y. remove mountains but it will not go far in solving the little problems of life.

To really succeed a faith is necessary, but it is faith in one's self. Believe in the God within you and you may combine with the forces of nature, that by honest effort, the mountains may be removed.

Some fall because they lose sight of the object on which they have set their hearts. They allow their talents and ambitions to flitter away through a hundred avenues and then sit and wonder that success does not crown their efforts.

To sit and pray will not bring rewards. The holy men of the Orient who pass their days in prayer are so wrapped in selfish desire for holiness that they are useless members of the earth.

The man who labors early and late wholly and well, and to apply their thoughts. Like the mother who answers a dozen senseless questions in a perfunctory way we are teaching the child to idle with its brains. The mother who answers a question by another that makes the child reason out its own answer is teaching it to use the greatest weapon it possesses in the battle of life—its reasoning power. When she goes further and helps him develop his thought by the work of his hands she has taught him another great lesson.

Dream if you must, but dream wisely and work cheerfully and the heights to which you climb may not be limited by the mortal mind. Faith in one's self and one's God, combined with a constructive mind will conquer any condition, physical, financial or mental.

NEW STRAW TURBAN
Many of the new straw turbans resemble the late winter hats of that name and are faced with black velvet. Note the sharp, close turn of brim on the left side, which needs no other adornment. On the right is placed a bunch of full-blown roses.

Illustrates a lovely leghorn faced with black velvet and trimmed on top with numerous loops of pink satin lace-saline ribbon, which are arranged to form a huge rose. The effect is beautiful.

ADVANCE PARIS MODEL.
Judging from early showings, indications point to a season of ribbon and flowers in the millinery world, and there is a marked absence of feathers. Our sketch, direct from Paris.

STRIKING EVENING GOWN
One of the smartest black gowns worn at a recent fashionable affair was patterned after the above model. The bodice was black Chantilly lace outlined with satin, which continued down the entire front, forming a panel. Skirt and back of black crepe de chine were joined to a deep hem of satin, and dotted motifs were used on skirt and bodice, as shown in cut. Worn with this was a turban of white milline, trimmed with ropes of jet and a black abrette.

Remarks have been made lately as regards the apparent decline of close personal friendships between men. ## A Family Medicine Without Alcohol

Ask your doctor if a family medicine, like Ayer's Sarsaparilla, is not vastly better without alcohol than with it. Ask him the difference between a stimulant and a tonic. Ask him about Ayer's non-alcoholic Sarsaparilla as a strong tonic for the weak. Ask him if it makes rich, red blood. Ask him if he has anything better suited to your case. Do as he says.

Save Half on Clothes—Be Better Dressed

We are showing, now, in this store, clothes that save you half your clothes money, yet make you better dressed. They are made for us by 'The Richmond Bros. Co. of Cleveland, one of the largest clothing manufacturing concerns in the world.

Ask us for United Clothes. Over one thousand skilled people are needed daily to make United Clothes. This gigantic business means that the cost of production per suit is lower than smaller tailors can ever hope to equal.

Thus we can give you more in these suits than anyone else for the money. The style is given them by a master designer who draws an enormous salary. You may be sure it is right. ## Windmills Warranted

The BURTON Pumping Mills are guaranteed to be well made and of good material; to be self regulating, and we agree to furnish repairs free of charge, if when properly erected and attended to with ordinary care, they shall blow down or be damaged by any storm that leaves other buildings in its track uninjured; This warranty is to hold good for one year from date of erection.

Drop us a postal for further particulars.

I will sell, while they last, a hand-made single Harness, every stitch made by hand, by expert workmen, made of the best oak leather tanned, a harness that practically last forever. It's the genuine old-time hand-made harness that your fathers bought at four times the price and are still using it today. This harness will give as much service as any \$20.00 harness sold anywhere today. Try it out for a week or so, and if you don't say it's the biggest bargain you ever had, bring it back and get your money. This harness has  $\frac{3}{4}$  in. bridle,  $1\frac{1}{4}$  inch traces, double breast collar and breeching,  $1\frac{1}{4}$  inch lines 14 ft. long. Nickel or Davis rubber trimmed. Come and see these Harnesses at once. They won't last long at the low price of ..... \$10.00

This Harness is all hand-made, of the best oak tanned leather, has 4-inch pad, 1 1/4 inch double stitched traces, heavy 1 1/8 inch lines. Just the harness for surrey or for light wagon use. You will pay $25 for this harness elsewhere, special at $16.00

$30 Double Driving Harness $23

Here is another unequalled bargain. Comes in either make of brass or steel. No traces. A fine looking harness and one that will give satisfaction.

When we do the work, every piece is taken apart and washed with soap and water first. It does very little good to oil a harness over the dirt. Then we oil each piece separately. You will get the best job in the city if you come here. Single harness, 50c double harness $1.00.

Any one wanting an extra fine job, can have the harness soaped and dressed, and we guarantee that no black will come off, for 25c extra on single harness, 50c extra on double harness.

Good values in four numbers, at 90¢ to $1.75 each.

THE ELGIN BOARD IS TO BE PROBED

WICKERSHAM GOES AFTER ALLEGED ARRANGEMENT TO FIX BUTTER PRICES.

OPENS WAR ON THE TRUST

Attorney General Orders Inquiry Looking Toward Dissolution or Prosecution of the Organization as Conspiracy in Restraint of Trade.

Washington, April 8.—Attorney General Wickersham issued instructions to O. E. Harrison to begin at once an investigation of the Elgin board of trade to develop whether that organization was not susceptible to prosecution or dissolution as a conspiracy in restraint of trade.

As a matter of fact the Elgin body of butter producers has been under investigation for some time, but the testimony of President Newman and Vice-President Wood before the Lodge committee forced the hand of the Department of Justice and the open order for an investigation was given.

Orders Transcript of Evidence.

And the first thing that Mr. Harrison did was to order a transcript of the evidence given before the Lodge committee, as the admission made there, seems to indicate that the board that fixed the price of butter for the whole district is an unlawful combination.

Whether or not the testimony of the two officers of the board gave them "an immunity bath" is one of the nice questions in the case. But it is contended that the effects of such a bath cannot endure for ever and that if the board persists in its old practices that it will be liable to attack.

Prices Fixed by Board.

Both Mr. Newman and Mr. Wood testified that while the prices are controlled by New York, the board at Elgin does actually fix each Monday the price that is to be paid for butter for the entire week. As they also testified that within the Elgin district are the southern tier of counties of Wisconsin, the eastern tier of Iowa and all of Illinois, and further that practically all the butter in which the board deals is shipped east, that in the view of the government makes it an interstate concern and gives the Department of Justice jurisdiction. The Aldystone Pipe company case, one of the early trust suits is said to furnish a precedent for just such a prosecution as is proposed.

EUGENE M. FOSS IS SWORN IN.

They will dedicate Howard University and since Howard Taft, Andrew Carnegie and other men have addressed at the dedication of University is the greatest institution of national prominence erected under a new $50,000 library building at in the world for the higher education.

of the colored race no little significance will attach to the sentiment expressed on this occasion by the leaders of public thought. That President Taft is greatly interested in the whole subject was attested when, about eleven months ago he held the corner stone of this self same occasion to some opinions which have been widely quoted.

For all that President Taft has been so closely identified with his important addition to the group of buildings at the colored school it was former President Roosevelt who was directly responsible for the donation.

When President Roosevelt delivered an address at Howard he took with him to the seat of learning Andrew Carnegie, who was at the time his guest at the White House. The wealthy iron-master was vividly impressed with all he saw and was entirely captivated when the colored students sang for him, producing those melodious musical effects attainable only by a negro chorus. "A speedy sequel to this visit was Carnegie's donation of $50,000 for a new library building and furnishings.

Latterly the students have hit on a unique mode of expressing their gratitude to Mr. Carnegie. They took it upon themselves to move to the new quarters the entire university library of 10,000 volumes. Working in relays the students accomplished this without any encroachment upon study or recitation hours and thus the entire transfer was effected without any cost to the institution.
